

Many students find the Transloc app to be difficult to use at times. This can further hinder people's time management as they aren't able to have as reliable transportation. The goal for our app would be to streamline the user experience and make it overall more manageable.